1. Three swept-back wing jet aircraft took off from the Grossenhain (N 52/A 01) airfield on 9 February 1950, heading east.

50X1-HUM

2. The names of the following Soviet physicians assigned to the field were learned: Haendler, Vera Haendler, Jakobi, and Steinberg, first physician.

Doctor Vera Haendler said that she and some Soviet officers had to return to the Soviet Union in mid-February 1950.

3. A total of about 20 jet aircraft were stationed at the field. Some biplanes had arrived recently.

Comment:

50X1-HUM

a. The reported occupation by about 20 jet planes seems to be underrated. at least 40 jet aircraft were stationed at the field (30 jet planes were counted on the landing field on 22 February 1950). It is assumed that two fighter regiments are stationed in Grossenhain.
